

The Quick 'Check your Understanding' Quiz (Form, Structure & Language).

1 mark for correct answer, bonus mark for each quote as supportive evidence to back up your answer.

1. Identify three parallels in the lives of Mickey & Edward.
2. How does Russell create contrast between Mrs Johnstone & Mrs Lyons? Give two examples.
3. At a key turning point in the play, Russell combines a happy celebratory event with a disastrous event which begins Mickey's downfall. What are the two events?
4. Name three things that happen to Mickey after his marriage and which signal his downward spiral to a tragic death.
5. What does the term 'dialect' mean?
6. What does the term 'accent' mean?
7. Give on example of how Russell represents the Liverpudlian accent in his dialogue.
8. Which character uses the most imagery in their lines? Remember examples give bonus points.
9. What are the Narrator's repeated allusions to superstition intended to have on the audience?
10. The Big Question: How does Russell use the plays structure to show the changing relationship of Mickey & Edward? Think about parallels between Mickey & Edward, & how the audience might respond to their changing relationship.