Frankenstein Questions

Answer the thought-provoking questions below from each chapter. Write what you think & compare with another student (or if working independently with your tutor) and discuss.

Letters

2. Is Walton's goal to "confer on all mankind a passage near the pole" noble or overly ambitious? 3. How does Robert's desire for a friend affect his relationship with Dr Frankenstein? How might this relationship affect the reader's trust in Walton as a reliable narrator? 1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth? 4. Is Victor's fascination with the Philosopher's Stone an admirable one?		Is Walton a reliable narrator? Why or why not?
3. How does Robert's desire for a friend affect his relationship with Dr Frankenstein? How might this relationship affect the reader's trust in Walton as a reliable narrator? 2. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
3. How does Robert's desire for a friend affect his relationship with Dr Frankenstein? How might this relationship affect the reader's trust in Walton as a reliable narrator? Topters 1-2 1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
3. How does Robert's desire for a friend affect his relationship with Dr Frankenstein? How might this relationship affect the reader's trust in Walton as a reliable narrator? Depters 1-2 1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
affect the reader's trust in Walton as a reliable narrator? 1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?	2.	Is Walton's goal to "confer on all mankind a passage near the pole" noble or overly ambitious?
affect the reader's trust in Walton as a reliable narrator? pters 1-2 1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
affect the reader's trust in Walton as a reliable narrator? pters 1-2 1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
affect the reader's trust in Walton as a reliable narrator? pters 1-2 1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?	3.	How does Robert's desire for a friend affect his relationship with Dr Frankenstein? How might this relationship
 How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
 How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
1. How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? 2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
 How does Victor's statement that "the world was to me a secret which I desired to divine" serve as characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth? 	nte	ers 1-2
2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
2. How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? 3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?	1
 How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth? 	Ι.
3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
3. What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?	2.	characterization?
shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?	2.	characterization?
shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?	2.	characterization?
	2.	characterization?
4. Is Victor's fascination with the Philosopher's Stone an admirable one?		Characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a
4. Is Victor's fascination with the Philosopher's Stone an admirable one?		Characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a
4. Is Victor's fascination with the Philosopher's Stone an admirable one?		Characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a
4. Is victor's fascination with the Philosopher's Stone an admirable one?		Characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a
	3.	Characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
	3.	Characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
	3.	Characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?
	3.	Characterization? How do Henry and Victor differ? Why might Shelley be setting them up as character foils? What is Shelley's intent when she has Victor characterize Elizabeth as "the saintly soul (who) shone like a shrine-dedicated lamp in our peaceful home?" What role does this characterization set for Elizabeth?

Chapters 3-5 1. Victor's obsession with natural science results in two years passing with no visits home. How would you evaluate his character at this point? 2. Describe the shift in tone when Victor says, "Learn from me, if not by my precepts, at least by my example, how dangerous is the acquirement of knowledge and how much happier the man is who believes his native town to be the world, than he who aspires to become greater than his nature will allow." 3. During his summer experiment, Victor admits "his eyes were insensible to the charms of nature." What role might nature (or the lack of it) play for Victor? 4. What message might Victor be missing when he dreams that his kiss turns Elizabeth into a corpse? Chapters 6-10 1. Who is at fault for William's death? Is anyone other than the murderer responsible for what happened? 2. How might Justine's trial have differed in today's court system?

3. How does Victor's guilt affect his health? What is Shelley's purpose in this recurring plot device?

4. How is Victor's reaction toward the Valley of Chamounix a departure from his previous views of nature?

Chapters 11-16

3. What crucial role in the creature's development is played by the DeLacey family? 4. What is the motivation behind the creature's vow of "eternal hatred and vengeance to all mankind?" (hapters 17-24 1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. 2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festi with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue.	1.	What imagery does Shelley employ when the character describes his "awakening?" What does his reaction remind you of?
3. What crucial role in the creature's development is played by the DeLacey family? 4. What is the motivation behind the creature's vow of "eternal hatred and vengeance to all mankind?" (hapters 17-24) 1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. (2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festivith this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he solames the creature?
4. What is the motivation behind the creature's vow of "eternal hatred and vengeance to all mankind?" (hapters 17-24) 1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. (2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festivith this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" (3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. (4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he solames the creature?	2.	How does the change in narration to the creature's point of view affect the reading of the novel? Do you fee sympathy for the creature when he is rejected by humanity?
4. What is the motivation behind the creature's vow of "eternal hatred and vengeance to all mankind?" (hapters 17-24) 1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. (2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festivith this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" (3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. (4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he solames the creature?
1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. 2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festi with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?	3.	What crucial role in the creature's development is played by the DeLacey family?
1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. 2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festi with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?
1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. 2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festi with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?	4.	What is the motivation behind the creature's vow of "eternal hatred and vengeance to all mankind?"
1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. 2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festi with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?
1. Is the creature's demand for a female companion a valid request? Examine the pros and cons of Victor compliance. Consider evidence provided by both Victor and the creature. 2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festi with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?
2. To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festi with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?	•
with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?	1.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?
with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?
with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?" 3. What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue. 4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he shames the creature?
4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he solutions the creature? Output Description:	2.	To what famous Romantic symbol is Shelley alluding when she has Victor think, "Could I enter into a festive with this deadly weight yet hanging round my neck and bowing me to the ground?"
4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he solutions the creature? Output Description:
4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he solutions the creature? Output Description:
4. What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he solutions the creature? Output Description:
blames the creature?	3.	What is Victor's greatest fear as he leaves for England? Describe the irony in his decision to continue.
blames the creature?
blames the creature?
blames the creature?
5. How is Victor's view of the Scottish Orkneys a reflection of his emotional state?	4.	What evidence suggests Victor feels responsibility for the murders? What evidence illustrates that he stiblames the creature?
5. How is Victor's view of the Scottish Orkneys a reflection of his emotional state?
5. How is Victor's view of the Scottish Orkneys a reflection of his emotional state?
5. How is Victor's view of the Scottish Orkneys a reflection of his emotional state?	_
	5.	How is Victor's view of the Scottish Orkneys a reflection of his emotional state?

	Shelley's purpose in his defence?
7.	After hearing of Clerval's murder, Victor falls ill once again. In agony, he wonders, "Why did I not die?" Wh would your answer be? Is there a reason for his continued anguish?
8.	For Victor and his father, what purpose would a quick marriage to Elizabeth serve? Discuss the impact Elizabeth. What role does she continue to play? Does her death alter or perpetuate that role?
9.	Discuss the irony in Victor's statement to the magistrate: "Man, how ignorant art thou in thy pride of wisdon
10.	What is the motivation behind Victor's vow to find and destroy his creature? Has he learned any lessons?
	,
ors
1.	What is the purpose of Shelley's irony when Walton recognizes he has found the friend he is looking for o to watch him die?
2.	When Walton listens to his men and turns his ship homeward rather than risk their lives, is he accurate in statement that he has "lost (his) hopes for glory?" Explain.
3.	Why does the creature choose to die at the end of the novel? What does his choice suggest about his connection to Frankenstein?